

Nancy Rooney:

Has been involved in competitive swimming since 1976. Became the Head Coach for Cornwall High School varsity girls and boys swimming in 1985. Has spent 20 years as the head coach, which produced two state champions. In addition she has coached age group swim teams since in US Swimming (USS) and the ESSL swim leagues since 1992. Nancy has also participated in running summer swim clinics for age group swimmers.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DAVE FREY: Swam AAU in college, lives in Cornwall and is currently a professor at West Point. Dave has 2 daughters that swim on the team. David begins his third year as a volunteer assistant coach. A resident of Cornwall, he is currently a professor at West Point, and has 3 daughters that swim on the team. He played Water Polo at Dartmouth College and was an All-County high school swimmer in Westchester County.

ROBERT SLEVIN: Swam AAU at Niagara University, Monroe Woodbury Marlins and West Point Swim Club. Rob has been a Cornwall resident for 14 years. He also worked as a life guard, swim instructor and coach for the Woodbury Parks Swim Team.

JILLIAN SABINE: Joined the Valley Central High School swim team in the 7th grade and swam high school for 6 years and VAC in the ESSL. Jillian then attended New Paltz and swam 2 years for the Hawks as a distance swimmer. Jillian continues to swim in a masters program.

STEPHANIE BRUNELL: Currently a member of the Cornwall Girls High School Varsity Swim Team. Stephanie has been recruited to work with our Novice and new swimmers.

